QUOTE

With reference to the current situation concerning the COVID-19 pandemic, the Company informs the market that the recent measures, including the closure of all non-essential retail outlets until the 11th April 2021, being a substantial part of the Group’s operations, is yet again expected to disrupt the Group’s operations.

Whilst all directives issued by the competent authorities have been and will continue to be rigorously abided by the Group, all necessary measures within its control are being taken with the aim of mitigating the effects that the pandemic is having on its business and operations. The executive management team is constantly monitoring the situation in preparation of any actions that may need to be taken to further mitigate the impact on the Group’s business.
